

Venue: Southampton Children's Hospital

Date: 5th March 2020

Nutrition Symposium hosted by: Southampton Children's Hospital PICU Research Group in partnership with PICS Nutrition Sub Group and the British Dietetic Association Paediatric Cardiology & Intensive Care Interest Group

TIME	"Working together in 2020"
09:30 - 10:00	Arrive and registration
10:00 - 10:10	Welcome and introduction - what can does Everest teach us about nutrition & how does the translate into Paeds critical care research vision
Morning session: Interventions and Outcomes
10:10 - 10:30	Nutrition - what are the key research priorities - how do we get there?
10:30-10.50	Protein & Pepanic - nutrition in the acute phase
10:50 - 11:10	Prehab -does it make a difference
11:10 - 11:30	Feeding intolerance in PICU - what does it mean a PICU perspective
11.30 - 11.50	Feeding intolerance in PICU - what does it mean a Gastroenterology perspective
11:10 - 11:30	Feeding difficulties in ICU survivors: current evidence
11:50 - 12:10	PICU rehab
12:10 - 12:25	Questions & session end
12:25 - 13:15	Lunch and Meet Leo the Dog
Afternoon session 1: Ethics and decision-making
13:15- 13:35	Decision-making: PICU family perspectives
13:35- 13:55	Decision-making: Health care professional perspectives
13:55 - 14:15	Difficult conversations and ethics in PICU
14:15 - 14:35	Clinical outcomes for children and families after PICU
14.35 - 14.55	Questions & session end
14:55 - 15:15	Coffee/tea
Afternoon session 2: improving quality of life for children with a chronic or life-limiting illness
15:15 - 15:45	Benefit of Therapy dogs
15:45 - 16.30	Professor Anne-Sophie Darlington Inaugural Lecture: Professor of Child and Family Psychological Health
1630 - 16.45	Round up/close and reception